

The Publishers of this Volume recommend the following

GUIDES AND MAPS TO THE BROADS.

New and Revised Edition.

Handbook to the Rivers and Broad of Norfolk and Suffolk. With New Chart. By G. Christopher Davies. Illustrated from Photo Pictures by the Author. 2/6. 39th Edition.

"The little book is one to slip in your pocket if you are making a trip on the Broad, for it is written by an experienced expert who knows the ins and outs of the district, and lets his reader into the secrets of what he sees, and how to see it."—Daily News.

Crown 8vo, Cloth, 2/6; Paper Boards, 1/6.

How to Organize a Cruise on the Broad. By E. R. Saffling. Illustrated. Or in Paper Covers, 1/6.

"A most useful rade mecum. How to choose a craft, how to provision it, 'dodges' for securing comfort, yacht cookery, skeleton trips, cabin pastimes, etc., are a few of the chapter headings."—Literary World.

"Written in a simple and animated style, this book will afford pleasure even to a reader who may not contemplate a cruise on the Broad."—Daily Chronicle.

Summer in Broadland; or, Gipsying in Norfolk Waters. Profusely Illustrated by the Gipsies. Crown 8vo. Cheap Edition, 1/6. Third Edition.

"Full of practical information, and is sure to please everyone who cherishes thoughts of going 'gipsying.' With pen and pencil the author and his companions on board the 'Gipsy' paint in glowing colours the delights of yachting in East Anglian waters."—Fauntleroy.

"A delightful little volume, with many dainty illustrations; and the book is marked by bright and vigorous writing."—The Scotsman.

Poppyland. Papers descriptive of Scenery on the East Coast. By Clement Scott. Crown 8vo, Cloth Elegant, 26 Illustrations, 2/6. In attractive Paper Covers, 1/6.

"One of the most readable and charming of the many books descriptive of scenery and holidays on the East Coast."—Essex County Chronicle.

"Describes so delightfully village and town life on the East Coast. Those who wish to get some idea of the beauty of Norfolk scenery will find no one more likely to give the knowledge than the author, for he sings the praises and delights of 'Poppyland' with all the charming skill of descriptive writing, of which he is a great master."—Hearth and Home.

History and Legends of the Broad District. By E. R. Saffling, author of "The Land of the Broad," etc. Beautifully Illustrated. Cheap Edition, 1/6.

"A pleasant and entertaining volume. Just the sort of book to enliven a summer holiday in the Broad district."—The Speaker.

"For lovers of the water the Norfolk Broad need no further recommendation; but the tourist will find that Mr. Saffling's 'History and Legends of the Broad District' will double his enjoyment."—The Graphic.

Jarrold's Chart to the Rivers and Broad of Norfolk and Suffolk. For Yachting. On Canvas and in Cloth Case, 2/6; on Canvas, mounted on Rollers and Varnished, 5/-; in Paper Covers, 6d.; in Cloth Case, 1/6.

JARROLD & SONS, Publishers, 10 & 11, WARWICK LANE, E.C.

Should any Visitor require further information the Publishers will always be pleased to reply on receipt of stamped addressed envelope.

[ADVT.]